International Walk 2023 - Walk with us on the historical Via Francigena in the South, from Teano to Rome

The Via Appia, the Appian Way known also as the Regina Viarum (the Queen of Roads), dates back to the 4th c[illegible] Apostles Saints Peter and Paul, Emperors, Popes, Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Thomas Aquinas, artists such as Petrarca, Tasso and C[illegible] famous report entitled Italian Journey) and musicians like Mozart walked on its paving stones. The Via Francigena wi[illegible] by pilgrims since more than 20 centuries. The itinerary is rich of interesting sites: Roman Temples, Cisterci[illegible] Renaissance palaces located in villages sometimes older than Rome. Our journey will welcom[illegible] [illegible]ndy beaches along the seaside, hill or countryside trails, on the shore of four lakes and in [illegible] [illegible]ranean bushes. In addition, we will enjoy the itinerary's cultural, spiritual and social va[illegible] [illegible]ers. Furthermore, we will meet local communities that will introduce us to their customs and traditio[illegible] [illegible] good time with our pilgrim friends from Europe and America. You can enjoy this adventure as you wish, in an experient[illegible]

Sold-Out

On October 4th, upon our arrival and once t[illegible] [illegible] process has been carried out, we will receive the Testimonium in the Vatican, a document that certifies the completion of the pilgrimage.
